Carryout Thanksgiving options to gobble on from Tarrant County restaurants fortworthreport.org/2026/11/16/carryout-thanksgiving-options-to-gobble-on-from-tarrant-county-restaurants

Mica Magday November 16, 2026

Restaurants across Tarrant County are offering carryout and prepackaged meals to gobble on this Thanksgiving. Whether you are looking for a full spread for the family, a romantic dinner for two or just a budget-friendly way to celebrate the holiday, there is something here for you.

Local charities are offering Thanksgiving meals to families in need, so all can enjoy the holiday.

Fort Worth

Eatzi's Market & Bakery

Eatzi's, a European-style specialty food market and eatery off South University Drive, is offering its own Thanksgiving takeout with smoked wagyu prime rib, glazed ham, cranberry chipotle glazed turkey and bacon ancho chile turkey leg.

This is a good option for smaller gatherings, and prices are a la carte. Check out their full menu and schedule your pick up.