Thanksgiving, Minus the Kitchen Chaos

southlakestyle.com/food/thanksgiving-minus-the-kitchen-chaos

Cynthia Naugher, Editor November 19, 2026

Turkey, stuffing, mashed potatoes, and absolutely no dishes? Now that's something to be thankful for. With Thanksgiving arriving Thursday, November 26, there's still time to make a few delicious plans. From lavish hotel buffets and steakhouse dinners to take-home favorites that let someone else do the heavy lifting, here are eight ways to put a feast on the table.

TAKE THE CREDIT, SKIP THE COOKING

Eatzi's Market & Bakery – Build your own Thanksgiving feast without lifting a roasting pan. Eatzi's holiday menu offers traditional oven-roasted turkey breast, cranberry-chipotle glazed turkey, orange-bourbon-vanilla glazed ham, and even a smoked Wagyu prime rib roast. Add green bean casserole, creamy mac and cheese, baked Brie, and fresh-baked treats, and nobody needs to know how little time you spent in the kitchen. Shop the Thanksgiving menu.