

PRESS

VALENTINE'S DAY TAKEOUT THAT WILL MAKE YOU FEEL FANCY AT HOME

FEBRUARY 9, 2021
BY ROSIN SAEZ

Romance is on the menu—okay, as well as lobster tail and French macarons, if you want. We've skipped the barbecue this year. Don't get me wrong, they're great if cleaning the meat off a rack of ribs is your love language. But we've rounded up some fancier ways to spend your Valentine's Day. Without further ado, here are some meaningful ways to celebrate love this year from the comfort of home.

Eatzi's Market & Bakery

Dinner for two has a choice of espresso and cocoa-rubbed wagyu sirloin, meta-crustacean crab-stuffed lobster tail, and more. For dessert, a heart-shaped crème brûlée and a chocolate truffle six-pack. Preorder by February 13. $126–$136, not including add-ons.