

15 STELLAR OPTIONS FOR A TOP-NOTCH, TAKE-HOME VALENTINE'S DAY FEAST

FEBRUARY 2, 2021

BY RACHEL PINN

Last year's Valentine's Day options just had to be creative to score points, but this year, it's a whole new ballgame. For those who don't want to cook, but don't want to take the risk of dining out during a pandemic with numbers on the rise, these Dallas restaurants are coming to the rescue with killer Valentine's Day takeout packages perfect for takeout, curbside pickup, or delivery.

Whether celebrating alone, with a significant other, with girlfriends or not at all, this Valentine's Day is definitely going to be different, but it doesn't have to be less delicious thanks to these 16 takeout options.

Eat your heart out at home, via Eatzi's

Eatzi's always has a number of specialty dinner options for each holiday, but for Valentine's Day they've put together some very fancy dinner for two options available for preorder, including a Rosewood Ranch espresso and cocoa rubbed Wagyu sirloin with black raspberry port demi-glace, two crab-stuffed lobster tails, filet mignon with horseradish butter, or chicken cordon bleu with mustard cream sauce. All combinations include side dishes, a heart-shaped crème brulee and a 6-pack of chocolate truffles. Order by Saturday, February 13.