Easter is right around the corner, and several restaurants in our neighborhood have plans to help you celebrate the occasion.

There are few other holidays tied as closely to brunch as Easter is. Here are a few places to enjoy a nice Easter brunch.

Eatzi's Market & Bakery

Eatzi's is offering Easter options.

Start off with a kale salad with mandarin orange and pomegranate before moving on to a main dish, like the pineapple-glazed ham, the lavender-glazed turkey breast or the raspberry black pepper glazed salmon. Pair it with rainbow carrots with brown sugar and fennel, butternut squash risotto or the roasted baby vegetable medley. Add on a loaf of bread and finish with seasonally decorated cupcakes or a raspberry key lime pie.
