We're all still trying to figure out what the new normal is as far as restaurants go, but regardless of COVID-19 and its aftermath, pretty much everyone still loves their mom and Mother's Day is traditionally the day we show it. Restaurants are tentatively gearing up with special menus for classic Mother's Day brunch and/or dinner, with most offering options for dining-in or taking-out.

In 2021, the date falls on May 9, and the opportunity to make reservations is already underway.

Here are the Dallas-Fort Worth restaurants serving Mother's Day feasts:

Eatzi's Market & Bakery

Special Mother's Day menu for takeout includes zucchini & goat cheese quiche, asparagus tart, chateaubriand filet, Wagyu sirloin roast, citrus herb turkey breast, raspberry Key lime pie, and Mother's Day Tower of Power Cake. Order at eatzis.com/mom by May 8, pickup May 7-9.
