'When you're hot, you're hot'

Palmer's Hot Chicken, the authentic Nashville hot chicken concept, will open a second location at 12300 Inwood Road, #130 in Preston Hollow this winter. The concept was created by Texas native and Nashville-bred Palmer Fortune. The interior will boast a dining room with seating for 75 in booths and at tables and a large full bar inside offering craft beer, their "famous" rosé and a full-bar lineup. New spin on smoothies

Bishop Cider Co. at 2777 Irving Blvd., Suite 208 has introduced Rotator Hard Smoothies. Bishop Cider has blended fruit, added alcohol and developed the smoothies. Fruit settled at the bottom of the test cans, so the cans got rotated to mix in the flavors. Rotator flavors include Yo! Banana Boy! (strawberry and banana), Reviver! (pineapple, coconut and lime) and BRB! (blueberry, raspberry and blackberry). Cans are packed upside down. Rotator is dairy free, gluten free and vegan. — Bishop Cider
