

FAMILY-FRIENDLY WAYS TO HAVE FUN IN DALLAS THIS HALLOWEEN

OCTOBER 14, 2021

BY TAYLOR CRUMPTON & ROSIN SAEZ

Bowling, trick-or-treating, spooky movie night—here are a few things to get you in the candy-fueled spirit this month.

Treats Galore at Eatzi's Market & Bakery
Oct. 18-31 | Dallas-Fort Worth locations

You're going to need to schedule your dental appointment now. Bring your sweet tooth to munch on an assortment of spooky snacks at Eatzi's. Ginger dead men, chocolate-covered Oreos, chocolate skulls, chocolate flying witches and chocolate jack-o'-lanterns are a few of the sweet items available for a Halloween pick-me-up. For the pumpkin spice lovers out there, munch on pumpkin bread and popcorn with a pumpkin spiced espresso in one hand to conjure the spirits of fall. We've also got a whole list of treats to order from local bakeries and chocolate shops right this way.
