

WHERE TO CELEBRATE PASSOVER IN DALLAS

APRIL 7, 2022
BY ADELE CHAPIN

Easter is full of bright and sweet flavors. From lemon custards to decadent tarts and cakes, it's hard to go wrong with a dessert this time of year. But if you are truly looking to capture the spirit of the season, restaurants across the nation are doing some pretty special treats in honor of Easter.

Eatzi's Market & Bakery

Where: Locations in Oak Lawn, Lovers Lane, Preston Royal, Plano, Grapevine, and Fort Worth

What: Eatzi's menu for Passover includes sweet and sour braised Angus beef brisket, citrus herb turkey breast, and salmon with a honey lavender glaze, along with sides like potato kugel, matzo ball soup, chicken liver spread, and rainbow carrots with brown sugar and fennel. Finish the meal with flourless chocolate cake with toasted meringue, baked apples in meringue, or coconut macaroons.

How to book: Order online beginning April 1, with pickup dates beginning April 14. Same-day orders can not be accommodated.
