The day of love and romance, Valentine's Day, is creeping up on us right along with Super Bowl Sunday two days prior. Doesn't it feel that way?

Sure, it may be a bit too late to book that romantic getaway right on or before Feb. 14, but that doesn't mean you can't spice up the day right here at home. Here are a few ideas to make that special someone in your life feel adored.

Eatzi's Market & Bakery

At one of Eatzi's three Dallas locations, there's a Valentine's Day menu to choose from. The menu includes edible gifts, like truffles, entrees, starters, desserts and sides. Orders need to be placed by Feb. 13.
