

THE ULTIMATE GUIDE TO VALENTINE'S DAY DINING IN DALLAS-FORT WORTH

JANUARY 24, 2023
BY NATALY KEOMOUNGKHOUN

There will be enough pasta, cake, and sparkling wine for everyone, whether you live in Dallas, Frisco, or somewhere in between. Here are your best bets this February 14.

Calling all lovers! Food lovers, that is.

Valentine's Day is a busy holiday for Dallas restaurants. Whether you're splurging on a hot date or have a hot date with a delicious dish, you will find no shortage of places to eat on February 14.

EATZI'S MARKET & BAKERY

Take Valentine's Day dinner to-go with special menu items for you to make at home. Expect steak, seafood, salad, and more. Items in the market include filet mignon with cabernet herb butter, crab-stuffed cold water lobster tail, and Rosewood Ranch espresso and cocoa-rubbed wagyu sirloin. Prix-fixe options for two are available for pre-order on February 13 and 14, and sweet treats like cocoa bombs and cupcakes are available, too. Items available for online order or to buy in the market. Multiple locations.
