Whether it's dining in or out, Dallas' restaurants have your Thanksgiving covered.

Thanksgiving is right around the corner, but that doesn't mean you have to do all the cooking this year. But here's something to keep in mind: the avian flu has caused a turkey shortage, so some menus won't be offering turkey. We have a section for those alternative meals if, you're into that. If you want turkey on the table, it's best to get your orders in earlier than you normally would.

Here's a guide for places to eat, pick up, or heat up Thanksgiving meals in Dallas.
