

WHERE TO GET A HATCH CHILE FIX IN DALLAS

AUGUST 19, 2022
BY COURTNEY E. SMITH

Hatch chili pepper season is in full swing, and to celebrate this crop of spicy green peppers from New Mexico, places across Dallas are spiking burgers, queso, pizza, and more with the fiery chiles.

Hatch chiles range from mild and slightly sweet to quite spicy, which means that it makes for a particularly versatile ingredient. Act quickly, though — Hatch season only runs from early August through the end of September, so there's no time like the present to check out one of these Hatch enhanced dishes.

Eatzi's Market & Bakery

Eatzi's is sliding into Hatch chile season with numerous pre-prepared food options, all available from August 4 to August 17. They include: Hatch chile queso made with with roasted Hatch chiles, Hatch chile pimento cheese, Hatch chicken salad, Hatch pimento wagyu sliders, chicken and Hatch chile empanadas, Hatch chile bacon cheddar burger, Hatch turkey meatloaf, and sausage and Hatch pepper pizza.
