There's plenty of stuff going on in the Dallas restaurant world, and this roundup only cracks the surface. There are new speakeasies, rooftop bars, gastropubs, fall menus, chalkboard specials, power lunches, romantic dinner deals, and all-you-can-eat pizza.

Here's what's happening in Dallas restaurant news:

Eatzi's Market & Bakery has new menu items: Chia Seed Pudding in two varieties: the Original, topped with granola, strawberries, blueberries, and blackberries; and the Matcha with kiwi, strawberries, raspberries, and raw almonds. Also power bowls: Bistro Filet Power Bowl or Chicken Power Bowl, with barley, arugula, mixed greens, mustard dill potatoes, cherry tomatoes, red onions, and shiitake mushrooms with a green harissa dressing; Salmon Power Bowl with brown rice, spinach, mixed greens, cucumber, carrot, edamame, radish, and green onion with ginger miso dressing; and Vegetarian Power Bowl with couscous, kale, mixed greens, roasted chickpeas, sweet potato, cauliflower, and shiitake mushrooms in a lemon tahini dressing.
