Eatzi's Market & Bakery

Last on my list of the best Dallas restaurants is Eatzi's Market & Bakery. With locations on Oaklawn Avenue, Royal Lane, and the Pavillion on Lovers Lane, this restaurant is an excellent option for enjoying scratch-made, made-to-order dishes in a casual and intimate European-style setting. If you don't have time to sit and eat, you can take a customizable pasta bowl to-go. Eatzi's offers several gluten-free, vegan, and vegetarian-friendly dishes for anyone with specific dietary needs. I recommend ordering their three-cheese crusted chicken, fried shrimp with hushpuppies, or salmon burger. You can also build your own salad or sandwich with your favorite ingredients.
