

EIGHT PLACES TO GET YOUR THANKSGIVING FIX

NOVEMBER 16, 2023

BY CASSIDY REICH

We're one week away from a holiday filled with food, football and family. Before you jump into grocery shopping, digging up recipes and preparing meals you'll end up eating for days, consider a few local eateries.

Eatzi's Market & Bakery

Ease the burden of at-home meal prep with Eatzi's chef-prepared Thanksgiving meals, available for pickup Nov. 16-22. Start by sampling the fig and almond baked brie, spinach and crab dip or cranberry apple salad. Once dinner rolls around, families can indulge in either roasted turkey breast, smoked turkey legs, glazed ham or prime rib. Of course, classic sides such as cornbread stuffing, cranberry sauce, green bean casserole, butter-whipped potatoes and seasoned corn are also ready for the taking. Last but not least, you won't want to skip out on the southern desserts, including pumpkin, pecan and apple pie. Prices range from $25 to $360.
