

DINE AT ONE OF THESE 20 DALLAS STAPLES FOR A FANTASTIC MEAL

These established culinary institutions have stood the test of time (some a very long time)

As much fun as it is to jump on the latest trend and head to Dallas' "hot new restaurant" du jour, never forget the long list of establishments that have made the dining scene in North Texas one of the best in the nation. Whether they've been around for more than 100 years or merely one well-received decade, these fine food purveyors have developed a devoted following among locals and never fail to impress visitors looking for a memorable experience. Though we could never include every iconic restaurant in Dallas, keep scrolling for an alphabetical listing of 20 can't-miss favorites.

COURTESY OF EATZI'S MARKET &
BAKERY

EATZI'S MARKET & BAKERY - OAK LAWN; LOVERS LANE; PRESTON ROYAL

Created by Phil Romano (the restaurateur behind Macaroni Grill and numerous other hits), this European-style market offers chef-crafted meals-to go that rival many sit-down restaurants.

Must-order: Chicken Pot Pie