

WHERE TO FIND THE BEST CROISSANTS IN FORT WORTH

AUGUST 23, 2024

Sometimes, all you crave is the comfort of carbs to satisfy your palate. In this article, we embark on a delicious journey through Fort Worth in search of the city's best croissants. From flaky and buttery classics to innovative twists, these bakeries promise to elevate your love for this iconic pastry. Join us as we explore where to find the most delectable croissants that Fort Worth has to offer, each one a testament to the artistry and craftsmanship of local bakers.

Eatzi's Market & Bakery

Eatzi's Market & Bakery offers a European-inspired dining experience. Their shelves are stocked with a variety of freshly baked breads, flowers, wine, craft beer, fresh produce and ready-to-eat meals made from scratch. Indulge in their exquisite traditional croissants—buttery, flaky and beautifully crafted. For those seeking adventure, try their chocolate croissant or turn it into a sandwich with the bacon, egg, and cheese croissant option.

What to get: Chocolate croissant

Location: 1540 S. University Drive, No. 100, Fort Worth

Phone: 817-945-9095

Hours: 8 a.m.-8:30 p.m. daily