Whether you're looking for a nice brunch out or an easy meal at home, we've got you covered.

Not sure which is more overwhelming: battling Easter Sunday brunch crowds in your Sunday best or stressing over a ham glaze while the egg hunt is in full swing. Luckily, Dallas restaurants are here to help, whether you're feeding a crowd or just want a festive cupcake in peace.

From barbecue by the pound to brunch casseroles, these pre-order specials will bring the flavor — no oven mitts required. Just don't wait too long. Most orders close before April 20.

Eatzi's

Pick from brunch items, starters, sides, entrees, sweets and breads on Eatzi's elaborate Easter menu. New items this year are spiced baby carrots ($28.99, serves three to four), potato and horseradish crusted salmon ($30.99, serves two), herb-marinated lamb lollipops ($94.99 for an eight-pack), and strawberry lemonade cake ($44.99, serves eight). Orders must be placed online by Saturday, April 19 and can be picked up April 18-20.
