Eatzi's Market & Bakery is launching a new game-day menu this weekend, featuring handcrafted bites perfect for tailgates and watch parties, available every Friday, Saturday, and Sunday until the Super Bowl.

The menu includes bold and spicy wings, hearty empanadas, sliders, and several new items such as Chimichurri Cheese Bread and Brisket Jalapeño Poppers. Eatzi's aims to elevate the typical hosting spread with these chef-prepared bites.

Eatzi's game-day lineup is designed to cater to both loyal football fans and those who are simply there for the food. The menu offers a variety of options, including Buffalo and Pan-Seared Chicken Wings, Nashville Hot Chicken Tenders and Sliders, and Shiner Bock Chili, a Texas favorite slow-cooked with Shiner Bock beer and roasted chiles.

Classic party staples like 7-Layer Dip, Guacamole, and Queso are also available, each prepared with Eatzi's signature touch. These offerings are crafted to be ready to grab and go, making it easy for hosts to serve delicious food without the hassle of preparation.
