

Where to go for Easter in Dallas-Fort Worth

33 cw33.com/a-taste-of-north-texas/food-and-drink/where-to-go-for-easter-in-dallas-fort-worth-2

Abbey Bowling

March 4, 2026

DALLAS (KDAF) — Still making Easter plans? We've got you covered. From egg hunts and brunch spots to family-friendly festivals and photo ops, our roundup has something for everyone.

Eatzi's Market & Bakery

Eatzi's Market & Bakery is offering a chef-crafted Easter menu featuring brunch favorites, entrées and festive sweets perfect for hosting at home. Highlights include Orange Bourbon Vanilla Ham, Potato & Horseradish Crusted Salmon, Challah French Toast, Deviled Eggs with Sweet Chile and sides like Wild Mushroom Risotto and Spiced Baby Carrots, along with seasonal desserts such as Strawberry Lemonade Cake and Hot Cross Buns. Eatzi's is also offering a Passover menu with traditional dishes such as BBQ Brisket, Potato Kugel and Matzo Ball Soup. Place online orders for Easter at www.eatzis.com/easter with pick-up available at all markets from Friday, April 3rd through Sunday, April 5. Easter online ordering closes Saturday, April 4. Place online orders for Passover at www.eatzis.com/passover with pick-up available at all markets from Wednesday, April 1 through Friday, April 3. Passover online ordering closes Thursday, April 2.