It's hot outside; let's go in and eat. This end-of-July restaurant news roundup covers some recent openings and closures, new baked goods, new menu items, and two great August traditions: DFW Restaurant Week and Hatch chile season.

Eatzi's Market & Bakery is celebrating Hatch chile season with the return of its annual lineup of limited-time menu items, available through August at all locations and online. Highlights include Hatch Pimiento Spread, a Beef Slider with Hatch Pimiento Cheese, Hatch Chicken Salad, and Hatch Queso, all featuring roasted Hatch chiles. The seasonal offerings are available through the end of August while supplies last.
